

Strengthening 4-H Clubs I

March 2, 2010

9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Dickinson County Extension Office Meeting Room

712 S. Buckeve Avenue. Abilene

Today, 4-H comes in many forms and sizes, but the 4-H Club remains our flagship program. Please join us as we focus on strengthening 4-H Clubs. The purpose of this training is to strengthen your capacity to work with volunteer adults and youth to develop and support strong, effective 4-H Clubs. You will take home new resources and ideas to share with 4-H Club Leaders.

Schedule of Events

9:30 am Start Time w/Pre-meeting activities

9:45 am Call to Order

- Building a Strong 4-H Club
- Meeting the Needs of YOUTH-Tips for leaders
- Making Club Meetings that Youth Choose to Attend
And Creating a Positive Environment

Lunch on Site

1:00 pm

- Energizer-Tip Sheet Quiz
- Monthly Agenda & Yearly Calendar
- Meeting the needs of Youth
- Fun Break
- Involving Parents
- Parents Committees
- Welcoming New Members
- ParLaw Activity
- Planning for Strengthened Clubs

3:15 pm Evaluations

- Head for Home

Please Register Online at www.kansas4-H.org by February 15, 2010. Checks should be made payable to KSU and will be collected on the morning of the training. Registration fee is $25 which includes materials and lunch. This training is for Extension Staff and approved Master 4-H Volunteers.

Presenters:

Diane Mack dmack@ksu.edu Beth Hinshaw bhinshaw@ksu.edu